Company Name: American Cast iron Pipe Company

Web Address: www.american-usa.com

Industry: Manufacturing / Construction / Corporate

Business / Organization Description:

The American Cast Iron Pipe Company was founded in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1905. American Cast Iron Pipe Company is a manufacturer of ductile iron pipe, spiral-welded steel pipe, fire hydrants and valves for the waterworks industry, and electric-resistance-welded steel pipe for the oil and gas industry.

How is PageGate Used:

American Cast Iron Pipe Company uses PageGate with a cellular modem to provide instant text alerts originating from their manufacturing execution system. The manufacturing system sends alerts to key individuals and allows the plant to run smoothly.

Customer Quote/Comments:

"Before, we were using the email method of sending alerts to key individuals. This method was slow and unreliable. PageGate with the cellular modem keeps our plant running smooth"
